

THE DON HAIG FOUNDATION

Sean Garrity
2006 Don Haig Special Jury Prize Winner

Sean Garrity began a career as a filmmaker and musician in 1997. He created award-winning music videos for Winnipeg artists including The Wyrld Sisters, Mark Reeves and Richard Moody. He made documentaries, and short films, including Middle, which won awards in Toronto and Vancouver, and How Much for a Half Kilo? – winner of the Best Film award in Calgary. All nine of his shorts have sold around the world.

His first feature film, INerTia, won Best First Feature at the 2001 Toronto International Film Festival, and Best Director award at the 2001 FilmCan Festival.

Lucid, -2005 -his second feature, was an official selection at TIFF (2005) in Contemporary World Cinema. His third feature, Zoey & Adam - 2010 premiered at The Atlantic International Film Festival and won the CanWest award for Best Canadian Feature Film.

Sean first studied film production and theory at Toronto's York University and continued his studies at the Instituto de Arte Cinematografico de Avellaneda in Buenos Aires.